Action Strategy

Freedom 4/24 employs a "Strategic Partnerships" model to accomplish its mission worldwide. Additionally, we host a variety of awareness and fundraising events including 5K walk/runs, cycling events, individual event fundraisers, and a black-tie gala to galvanize local communities to join in the fight against sexual exploitation and human trafficking. In 2016 we hosted more than 12 such events throughout the United States.

Programs

Turning awareness into action is at the core of every program

- Race events (relationship building, evangelism, awareness)
- Teaching (educational materials, lectures, and public speaking)
- General awareness (events, social media, print media)
- Beginning in 2017, we are piloting a prevention education program in private and public schools

Additional Activities

- Short-term awareness/mission trips (In 2016 we lead 3 international trips.)
- Internship Programs (In 2016 we had 16 interns serve in a variety of areas.)

Freedom 4/24 will never withhold outreach services from any individual. Freedom 4/24 does not discriminate against any individual on the basis of faith, ethnicity, race, gender, political affiliation, beliefs, or any other situation or condition.
